

MARITIME WEEK AFRICA

9-13 JULY 2018
ACCRA, GHANA

Maritime Week Africa is a unique week-long event created to bring together local bunker suppliers and regulators with international traders and buyers aiming to develop business in Africa.

Held in Accra, Ghana, this year's event comprises the MWA conference and a NEW specialist training course, Bunker Trading and Operations, bringing first class knowledge and expertise to a region with enormous but still largely untapped potential.

CONFERENCE

Wednesday 11 - Thursday 12 July

The high-level two-day conference will cover a range of subjects of particular interest to those working or interested in bunkering in Africa.

TRAINING

Bunker Trading and Operations • Monday 9 - Tuesday 10 July

This intensive two-day course examines bunker trading and sales, price risk management, fuel supply and bunkering operations. It will cover the essentials of oil trading, cargo purchase and terminal storage, it will also cover fuel quality and availability, the use of alternative fuels, and the far-reaching impact on global bunker markets of new emissions regulations. The course includes practical exercises and tests and provides very helpful 'real-life' examples to illustrate the key areas covered.
